THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. Comments of Parisian Papers on the Philippine Problem.

PARIS, Nov. 7. - Referring to the peace negotiations between Spain and United States, the Gaulois says: "On the whole the attitude of the Americans has been encouraging to the Spaniards, and it is likely that an agreement will be arrived at after the elecsion in the United States, when the Republicans will show themselves less exacting, being relieved of electoral exigencies. The facts all point to this conesusion and indicate that the negot.ations will resolve themselves into a simple financial discussion. It is hardly to be supposed that America will restore the Philippines, as those islands represent a substitute for a war indemnity, which America would be justified in demanding. Moreover, it must be remembered the Americans have cortain moral obligations to discharge in regard to the insurgents. Having encouraged Aguinaldo in his operations, they are to some extent obliged to see that the nsurgents are definitely released from Spanish domination. As to int rventien upon the part of Europe, such a contingency can only be imagined in case of there being clear proof that Spain and America were not alone interested in the matter. It remains to be seen whether the other powers, and Japan notably, will without protest see the mewcomer in the far east install hir elf in so important an economic and strategic point." The Matin says: "The point of the Spaniards is well taken. The Paris conference was to confine itself to a single object, establishing an agreement on the points of detail summarized generally in the Washington protocol. The Spaniards have kept loyally to the agreement and have not haggled in their engagements. The United States, on the other hand, has insisted on submitting propositions altogether emtside the lines in the protocol, notaby with regard to the Philippines."

Germany and the Philippines. LONDON, Nov. 7 .- The Berlin correspondent of The Standard says: "The semiofficial papers have received a hint te stop their attacks upon America. I have good reason to believe, however, that Germany will doff her reserve so soon as other powers seek a share in the spoils of the Philippines."

The Vienna correspondent of The times, commenting upon the irritation of the German press over the attitude of the United States toward the Philippene question, says: "It has but little apportance and is only likely to excite the scorn and defiance of the Americans and tend to confirm them in their determitation to keep the Philippines. The Francienblatt in a temperate article that gives the German papers an example of impartiality, recognizes that it is purely a question for the Americans to decide for themselves."

NEW JAPANESE MINISTRY. Yamagata Aritomo Forms a Non-partisan Cabinet. YOKOHAMA Nov. 7.-Field Marshal Marquis Yamagata Aritomo has formed a ministry to succeed the cabinet of Count Okuma Stagaki, the first party cabinet in the history of Japan, which took office on June 28 last and resigned on Oct. 31 owing to differences upon the question of filling the portfolio of publie instruction.

The Yamagata cabinet contains no member who is connected with any of the political parties. It is constituted as follows:

President of the council and premier, Marquis Yamagata Aritomo; minister of foreign affairs, Viscount Aoki, formerly Japanese embassador to Germany; minister of the interior, Marquis Saigo Tsugumichi; minister of finance, Count Matsoukata; minister of war, Lieutenant General Katsura; minister of marine, Admiral Yamamoto; minister of justice, M. Kiyoura Kelgo.

society of Spanish-American War. LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 7 -Saturday night there was organized in this city a society which aims to be to the soldiers who enlisted for the Spanish-American war what the Grand Army of the Republic has been to the Federal army of the civil war. "The service men of the Spanish war" is the title of the new society, and the plan of organization was conceived by Captain Wilson I. Davenny, commissary of subsistence of the First brigade, Second division, First army corps. Articles of incorporation have been drafted. This, the primal chapter, has been named Henry Clay Camp, No. 1. The following officers were elected: Commander, Colonel Leonard; vice commander, Lieutenant Colonel Banks, adjutant and chief of staff, Captain Davenny; treasurer, Colonel Gunder A ritual and regulations will be drafted.

A TWICE SUNK SHIP.

Story of the Final Loss of the Maria Teresa.

BRAVE WORK OF CREW'S RESCUERS.

Admiral Cervera's Flagship Goes Down With the Stars and Stripes Flying at Her Masthead.

FORT MONROE, Va., Nov. 7 .- Ensign James C. Summers, officer of the deck of the Vulcan, which arrived here late Saturday night, gives the following graphic account of the sinking of the Infanta Maria Teresa, which went down off San Salvador, Bahamas, last Tues-

"We officers and men of the Vulcan shall never forget the dramatic scene presented by that sinking ship, which we were towing, and the gallant rescue of her crew by the tug L J. Merritt during the afternoon of Tuesday. The gale in which the Teresa was lost began with a fierce squall five minutes before 1 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 1. Wind and sea rose at 1 o'clock. From the Teresa's bridge came the wigwag signal by lamp, 'Signal Merritt to steer to windward.' The Merritt at once changed her course to north-northeast. It had been north. To us the fact that the Teresa must be kept head to sea was in itself considered ominous. All signals were made to us by wigwag fing from the Teresa. We repeated them to the Merritt or Leonidas.

"At noon the gale had increased in violence, and all three vessels labored heavily in the sea. The Teresa, plunging deeply, took much water on board over the bows, and often when reeling she shipped seas amidships. Her starboard engine only was being used. It was turning 38 revolutions when last reported. The forward wrecking pump was sending out a large stream over the port bow.

"At ten minutes past noon the Leonidas, then fully a mile ahead, was signaled, 'Do not go far ahead.' Thirty minutes later the Teresa signaled, 'Can Merritt run to Watling's island safely?" The Merritt answered 'No' promptly. This was the first intimation of the real danger at hand.

"Almost simultaneously with the Merritt's next signal, 'Give your orders,' came this from the Teresa, Tell Mor. ritt to cast off and come within hall." This was done, and her erew hauled in the 100 fathoms of hawser while on the way to assist the Teresa. The latter then signaled: We shall abandon ship. Tell Leonidas to stand by to windward. Do not east off our lines.' The Vulcan answered, We will hold on until the last and use oil,' to which the Teresa replied, 'Many thanks.' "The Vulcan's commander, Lieutenant George P. Blow, U. S. N., immediately planned the Vulcan's part in the scheme of rescue. It was unquestionsinking vessel. Being almost sure that the Teresa's starboard engine would be kept working until the last, it was decided to hold on to the hawser, thereby giving the Teresa sufficient steering way to enable her helmsman to keep the heavy sea on her starboard bow and still be to leeward of the Vulcan, enabling the latter to use oil to advantage when the rescuing in boats began.

"From the first the heavy laboring of the Teresa gave the impression that she would founder suddenly and that all her people would be overboard at any moment, either swimming or drowning before our eyes. Everything was done, therefore, during the first hour with that thought uppermost, and officers and men in every department vied with each other in obeying orders.

"Assistant Paymaster Robert H. Woods, U. S. N., was detailed to note the time that each signal was sent and repeated. Oil was the first requisite. Mechanics, directed by Passed Assistant Engineer John L. Gow, U.S. N., passed it up in buckets from the hold, those on deck filled small bags with it. This work was intrusted to Lieutenant Smith. The effect was immediate in smoothing the heavy seas near the

"Rubber life belts were brought on deck and filled with air, ready to throw to men in the water. A bow line was made in every rope's end, by which men could be hauled out of the sea. If the ship had foundered before her people were taken off it was the commanding officer's intention, after cutting the hawser, to place his vessel to leeward and then work up to windward of the men in the water and pick them up. "Half the charges were extracted from some six pounder shells, and they were fitted over the ends of oars, to which small lines were attached. These were to have been fired from the gun across the spot where the men might have been seen in the water. Navigator G. L. Holsinger, U. S. N., directed this and other important work. "After the Teresa began to fill it became impossible for the Vulcan to keep her head to windward, but being practically waterlogged she made an excellent breakwater for the hoats, even after she fell off into the trough of the sea,

"Directed by Lieutenant Gilmer, the crew and engineers' force equipped two lifeboats with oars, life preservers and oil bags. They were launched from the top of the deckhouse, and by means of long lines were veered astern in the hope that they would reach the Teresa. but the heavy wa carried them far to windward, they fould the hawser and were finally cut adr.ft.

"At 2 in the afternoon the Merritt. splendidly handled by her captain Da vid Wolcott 'wore ship' just astern of the Teresa and came up under her lee just in time to take off the first boatload of rescued persons. The winckers and volunteers from the naval versels, presu nably direct of by Capta n John L. Chittenden and Lieutenant Commander Harris, had succeeded in lowering one of the two surfbrats hanging from day. its on the Teresas port side. Pulling omickly clear of the ship's side, the boat's crew, composed of the wreckers' men, went about saving the people in a systematic way.

"There was less than four hours of daylight left in which to rescue 114 persons, including 18 Cuban coal passers, and such a sea was running as would have daunted any lifeboat crew. To have attempted to go near enough to the great ship's side to let her people climb down or drop into the boats meant certain destruction to the rescuing party. So while the boat was towed by its painter from the ship's lee quarter and was kept clear by two men at the oars and by the steersman in the stern, another line was used to send down the men from the ship.

"Each man, slung in the center of this rope, was hauled through the water in most cases to the boat and then tumbled in over the bow. It was a slow but safe process, as the result proved, for by 5 o'clock every man, as far as we could see, was safe on board the Mer-

"The force of the gale and height of the sea may be best understood by the fact that although only 230 fathoms of hawser separated the Teresa from the Vulcan the watchers on the latter vessel, owing to the heavy seas, driving rain and spray, were only able to see the boats of the rescuing party at long intervals when they came out of the trough of the sea. The Merritt herself, although a splendid sea boat, was buried in the trough at times so that only the ends of her mastheads were visible. "The first boat lowered made in all four round trips between the Teresa and the Merritt, and the second made three trips, so that to rescue all hands the boats had to make the passage through those heavy combing seas 14 times, and right gallantly those brave fellows accomplished the work. Lucky indeed was it for those rescued that the boats were manned by past masters at the oar and

"For two hours men with axes, under the direction of the executive officer, had been stationed aft, ready to cut away at a moment's notice the lines that held the hawser in case the Teresa should founder during the transfer of her men. Every Vulcan man watched the great ship with an anxious eye as she plunged 'forecastle head under' the head seas clear to the turret, coming out again with the water streaming from her hawsepipes and showing the heel of her ram above the next big sea. Forty-four shipmates of theirs were on board the doomed vessel, and it was yet a question whether their rescue could be effected before

"Heavy rain squalls beat the sea down a little at this time, but the wind blew harder than ever. Struggling for a foothold on the Teresa's rickety bridge, her signal man, Crossett, wigwagged to the Vulcan at 4 o'clock: 'Don't cast off the towline yet. Two more boatloads will clear the ship.' We replied, 'All right; will hold on until the

"High up on the bridge, silhouetted against the leaden sky and bracing himself against the fearful rolling of the stood the man at the wheel. He was alone and probably the last person to leave his post, for it was not until the final boat was receiving its quota of men that he lashed the wheel, came down the bridge ladder and went aft to eave the ship.

"It was not until 11 minutes past 5, when Lieutenant Blow and his officers were certain that the last boatload had | been taken off, that the order was given to 'cut away.' Two blows of an ax severed the lines, and as the links of the chain bridle rattled out through the stern chocks the Vulcan's crew, led by Chief Engineer Gardiner C Sims, United States navy, gave three ringing cheers as a salute to the stars and stripes flying as if in defiance of the elements at the Teresa's jackyard and also to the bravery of the Merritt's men who had made such a gallant rescue of their shipmates.

"Twenty minutes later it was so dark that the Teresa was only a black speck against the horizon, and at 6 o'clock nothing but the lights on the Merritt and Leonidas could be seen, while the gale howled and the sea rose higher than ever.

"The Leonidas left the scene of the wreck at 4 o'clock on Wednesday, eight hours after us. She makes eight knots,

BANK ROBBERY.

Thieves Escape With $800 Worth of Stamps.

RICHFORD, Vt., Nov 7.-Three daring men blew open the vault of the Richford Savings Bank and Trust company early yesterday morning, and while they only succeeded in securing $500 in stamps they escaped detection by capturing two passers by and holding them prisoners until they had med five unsuccessful attempts to open the inner safe, which contained a large amount of money.

The inside of the vault was badly wrecked by the explosion, and it is estimated that the damage will amount to $3,000 which is fully covered by insurance. The surrounding country has been thoroughly searched without finding any trace of the robbers.

Explosion Wrecks Part of the Great Building.

IMMENSE DAMAGE DONE

The Central Eastern Wing Almost Completely Ruined.

SUPREME COURT ROOM GUTTED.

brary Badly Injured - Explosion Caused by Leaking Gas In the Basement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. - An explotion and fire at 5:13 yesterday afternoon wrecked the supreme court room and the rooms immediately adjoining it on the main floor of the capitol. The damage is enormous. The entire centrai eastern part of the great marble pile from the main floor to the subterranean basement practically is a mass of ruins. The force of the explosion was so heavy that the coping stones on the outer walls just east of the point where the explosion occurred were bulged out nearly two inches, windows in all that part of the building were blown out and locked doors were forced from their hinges quite 150 feet from the scene of Fire followed the explosion so quickly as to seem practically simultaneous with it. The explosion shook the immense structure to its foundations and was heard several squares from the capitol. It occurred in a small room tightly inclosed by heavy stone walls in the subterranean basement immediately below the main entrance to the old capitol building. In this room was a 600 light gas meter, which was fed by a four inch main. Very little gas is used in that part of the building, but at the time of the explosion the gas had not been turned off at the meter. The meter itself was wrecked, and the gas pouring from the main caught fire. The flames originating from the explosion darted up the shaft of the elevator, which had been completely destroyed by the force of the explosion, and communicated with the record room of the supreme court, the office of the marshal of the court and the supreme court library. Before the flames could be subdued the priceless documents in the record room had been almost totally destroyed, and serious damage had been done in the marshal's room and some minor rooms in the immediate vicinity.

The library of the supreme court. located immediately beneath the supreme court room, was badly damaged by fire smoke and water, water practically destroying the great collection of law reference books. The library contains about 20,000 volumes, and was used not only by the justices of the supreme court, but by members of congress and lawyers practicing before the supreme court. Mr. Justice Harlan said tonight that the library was very valuable. Many of the works it contained would, he thought, be difficult to replace. Librarian Clarke, after a cursory examination necessarily made by the light of lanterns, expressed the opinion that many of the books could be saved, although they had been drenched by water from the streams poured into the library for two hours or more after the explosion occurred.

The most serious damage in the opinion of the justices of the supreme court is to the records stored in the subbasement. These included all of the records of the supreme court from 1792 to 1832. The room contains records of cases and opinions rendered by the fathers of the juliciary of the government. Apparently the documents in this room are either totally destroyed or so badly damaged by fire and water as to be useless. Justice Harlan said that while the loss of the records was irreparable it was fortunate that the later records of the court which were kept in the office of the clerk on the main floor were not injured As documents for reference at this time and later Justice Harlan thought these were of far greater value than the records destroyed. Fortunately the clerk's office was not in the least damaged by fire, and the explosion did no damage in it except to blow out one window

Mr James McKenney, clerk of the supreme court, expressed the hope, after making an examination of the old secord room, that some at least of the documents could be saved. Last night, however, owing to the inadequate light. ing facilities in that portion of the build ng where the explosion and fire occurred, it was impossible for him to make an intelligent or thorough investigation of the damage. The supreme court room was demaged principally by water and smoke, the fire not reaching that point Adjoining the courtroom, however, both the marshal's office and the senate barber shop furnished food for the flames

While many theories are offered as to the coure of the explosion, it seems beyoud doubt to have been due to escaping gas. At a ven minutes after 5 Licuteneral Nelson of the capital police deto t d an odor of gas in the corridors adjoining the supreme court room. Not hang able to locate it, he proceeded to statuary hall-the old hall of the house of representatives-thinking the gas might be escaping from a burner in that vicinity. While he was endeavoring to locate the escape of the gas the explosion occurred. Only a few persons, prancipally officers of the capitol police. were in the building at the time, but several of them had narrow escapes, Before the fire department, which respended to an alum sent in by a policeman three squares from the capitol, had afrived, C. P. Ollem, chief elect; see of the capitol, and H. W. Taylor chief engineer of the house side, had a stream playing into the supreme con record room, which by that time was a foaring furnace.

Within a few minutes after the anrival of the fire department the flames were under control, although as a precautionary measure streams were poured into the marshal's office, the library and the subterranean basement for two hours. The firemen were unable, howe ever, for a considerable time to extinguish the flame of gas which shot eat. of the four inch main in the me room. From this main the fire sweet through an orifice in the basement fi caused by the explosion and attacked the consultation room of the supreme court justices, on the main floor. Some damage was done to the furniture and fittings of this room, but it was incomsiderable as compared with that done elsewhere. The robing room of the justices practically was undamaged. It was evident that the fire could not be extinguished until the gas from the main was cut off. That this might be accomplished the firemen turned two streams upon the main, choking the flow of gas and at the same time cooking the pipe. Electrician Gliem, brating the intense heat, entered the meter room and cut off the gas at the floor valve of the main.

Throughout the lower central portion of the old capitol building doors, windows and fittings in committee rooms and other apartments are badly damaged. Just north of the crypt an archway almost over the meter room was completely blown out, and great masses of masonry torn from the floor were hurled to the ceiling with such force as to burst the stone and plaster of the walls above. Ponderous flagstones were wrenched from their resting places, and throughout the corridors the frescoing and walls were utterly ruined. No damage was done to the main foundations of the buildings, as these are of solid masonry deeply imbedded and 25 feet 4 inches thick.

The electric lighting apparatus, including dynamos, boilers and wirings, was not damaged. In order to enable the firemen to work without peril from live wires Electrician Gliem cut off the current from all wires except one circuit, which lighted the lower western part of the building. Within 30 feet of the scene of the explosion a solitary incandescent lamp, marking the exact center of the capitol structure and hanging directly over the bier in which it was proposed to lay the remains of

George Washington, burned brilliantly. Among the losses which will be most sincerely regretted are those of busts of Chief Justice Marshall and other distinguished members of the supreme court, which were arranged on small pedestals about the supreme court chamber. In the smoke and ruin which followed the explosion these valuable works of art were either damaged or wholly destroyed, and with their destruction the country has suffered an irreparable loss. Many of them have been treasured as exhibits in the supreme court chamber for half a cen-

The capitol building has been damaged a number of times before, but 🛣 is believed that last night's fire will prove to be the most disastrous in the history of the building. On two occasions prior to this fires have been started by explosions of gas. Seventeen years ago a large amount of damage was done to the same part of the building by an explosion of this kind, and in 1876 there was an explosion of gas that killed one man and came near killing an-No intelligent estimate of the money loss by the explosion and fire can yet be made. In the opinion of capitol officers and mechanics who examined the structure last night the loss will reach probably $200,000 to the building. The loss on the library and records, as stated above, can be scarcely estimated in dolars and cents. A million dollars could not replace them because many of them have no duplicates in existence.

Arrangements were completed last night by Librarian Clarke of the supreme court and Colonel Richard D. Bright, sergeant-at-arms of the senate. by which the sittings of the supreme ourt will not be interrupted. The court will convene for the present in the room of the senate committee on the District of Columbia, one of the most spacious rooms in the capitol. How long the sessions of the court will be held there will be determined by the justices them-

LYNCHING IN ALABAMA. Negro Taken From Constable and ' Hanged to a Tree.

SELMA, Ala., Nov. 7 .- News of a lynching in Antanaga county has reached here. Mrs. Stridler, wife of a merchant and justice of the peace at Jones Switch, while preparing to retire discovered a negro under her bed. Upon her screaming for help the man sprang for the door and made his escape, leaving behind a strip of bar iron with which he intended to do his murderous work. A negro section hand, John Williams, living near by, was suspected and placed under arrest. He was tried and committed to jail. Constable Queen started to Prattville with him, and when about a mile from Jones Switch was met by a crowd, who took the negro and swung him to a tree. The negro admitted that the iron bar and some clothing found in Mrs. Stridler's room were his property.

It is alleged that the company which owned the road had a contract with the Spanish government by which it was obliged to pay a certain sum to the latter every time a car ran off the track. So, whenever the government got hard up, it put obstructions on the track and thus was enabled to collect. At last the company got tired of this and went out of business. "There was a plan, which now is sure

There are about $00,000 people on the Island, who will doubtless require many things which this country has to supply."

QUESTION OF IDEAS.

No one man invented the modern retail store or conceived the controlling idea of it. It is an evolution; but it gives commerce a field of graudeur hitherto unknown. Its mission has interests far beyond mere gains to the proprietors. The net profits of Tompkins' great store are a mere commission on sales. 'Aggregation is economy, savings are a profit. Thus prices come down, distribution is increased, and more managers and sale-speople are employed. Increased employment is socially constructive. The busin as of Tompkins' store grows rapidly-it runs on ideas.

It is an Idea that we will sell, this week, one case of VERY HEAVY 10c Unbleached Canton Flannel at 4%c per yard.

Ladies' Flanuelette Wrappers, 79c to $1 value; at Tompkins' 59c each.

It's the item of Underwear, and more important a matter there cannot be. This branch of our business receives extra attention and very flattering patrona, e. It is not an e sy branch of retailing in which to attain prominence. There are few things in all the dry goods lists that are more staple. To offer better and better goods at lower and lower prices is to disturb foundations deeply set. Yet we have done and are doing it. The markets are watched vigorously and sternally by our buyers. Our purchases are doing it. The markets are watched vigorously and eternally by our buyers. Our purchases are immenee and come direct from the manufacturers,—consequently the best goods, cheapest. For mothers nursing their children and for general debility from any cause, I regard it as of especial value, as it combines both tonic and nutrient properties, which make it truly the 'Best' Tonic."

"I recently prescribed Pabet Malt Ex-tract, The "Best" Tonic, to three of my patients, all of whom were ladies, and all of whom were suffering from dyspepsh and its consequences, and in all these sees it acted like a charm. Two of them bought more of the tonic, and continued to take it, until now they tell me they can eat anything, and one of them added "everything," without the slightest inconvenience. They have certainly improved wonderfully in weight and strength. I have prescribed your "Best". Tonic a great number of times. It is one of the best, if not the very best, at its kind."

"Peril and hardship, and years of toil broken by weeks of brutal dissipation, draw baggard lines across their eager laces, but never dim their reckless eyes nor break their bearing of defiant self-confidence. . . . When drunk on the villainous whiskey of the frontier towns, they cut mad antics. riding their horses into the salooss, firing their pistois right and left, from boisterous light-heartedness rather than from any viciousness, and indulging too cites in deadly shooting affrays, brought on either by the accidental contact of the moment or on account of some long-standing gradge, or perhaps because of bad blood between two ranches or localities;" * * * * but "they are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers; nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great-city to be mentioned in the same breath."

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS.

Election Law Rules for Voting Spilt Tickets Where There Are Two or More Candidates to Se Elected to the

ED. MERCURY:-Will you please call the attention of voters to Section 110. Subdivision 2, Rules No. 4 and 5 of the Election Law regarding the intent of electors in voting for candidates for coroners, members of the board of education and constables.

If voting mark is placed in the circle of the Republican ticket and also opposite? will be counted for Joseph C. Miller and Thos. S. Gillson. If voting mark is placed opposite Harding and Gillson the vote will be counted for both Harding and Gillson, respectively, even though they are on the same line. If voting mark is placed opposite the name of for that office will be counted as blank. | control of State affairs? If the voting mark is placed opposite Case and McBrair, then Case, McBrair and Finn will receive the count. If the they were informed by the State Engineer, voting mark is placed opposite McBrair, Smiley and Martin, then McBrair, that $9,000,000 would complete the Smiley and Martin will receive the vote, although McBrair and Martin are on the same line. The same rule that applies to the office of coroner also applies to that ployes would have to pres a civil service or constable and Justice of the Supreme

All of the above results are conditioned on the voting mark being in the Bepublicau circle, a d the same rule can be applied to any other ticket on the ballot. If the voter places voting mark apposite the candidate for whom he wishes to vote in the offices above mentioned the votes will be counted for such candidates unless he places the voting mark opposite periect saturnalia of theft and plunder. more names than there are offices to fill, in which case the vote for those offices will be counted as blank.

MUST VOTE ON LICENSE.

Judge Birschberg Refuses an Application to Restrain a Town Clerk from Issuing the Ballot,

An effort was made in Judge Hirschberg's court, in Newburgh, Saturday, to prevent the distribution of the ballots for voting on the question of local option to-morrow in Cornwall. Application was made to restrain the Town Clerk from issuing the ballots.

Cornwall is new a probibition town, and the Rev. Dr. Egbert and other temperance residents desired to prevent a vote from being taken. They allege that the law requires that a petition signed by one-teath of the voters of the town shall be filed with the Town Clerk at least twenty days before the election to provide for a vote on the license question. In this case, they allege, it was ! within eighten days of the election; when the petition was filed

Judge Hirschberg denied the motion to restrain the Town Clerk, and the election on the license question in Cornwall will proceed to-morrow. The decision is of considerable local importance, as it stables? affects other country towns of this, Suilivan and Rockland counties.

Nepotism in the Coroner's Office.

In line with Judge Dickey and other distinguished functionaries who provide for their own household at the public's expenselooms up Coroner Harding, neither last nor least. In the absence of any sularied berth at his disposal for hungry and deserving relatives, this hustling "third termer" furnishes lucrative employment for his son as clerk or juryman on those benevolent institutions known as inquests, thus diverting many dollars from the pockets of local citizens into the Harding exchequer. A vote for Dr. Gillson will be a vote to abolish physicians' fees which cost the taxpayers hundreds of dollars annually; it will also be a vote to eliminate nepotism in the public service.

A WORD TO HONEST MEN. To-morrow the people will decide whether the Republican or Democratic party shall rule the State of New York for the next gubernatorial term.

A few words, to-day, may have some effect on thoughtful voters. The writer favors Democratic ideas and principles, but far above and beyond the immediate success of either Republican or Demograt places honor and honesty in the administration of law, and especially in the disbursement of the public money.

We have arrived at a strange condition for it may be fairly and truly said, that the name of Thos. S. Gillson, the vote the average politician has a double code of moralty. It may be he is personally trustworthy and honorable, and politically distinctly lax and dishonest. This sounds like a paradox, but it is a fact. With this prelude let us come to the questions. How stands the record of the present administration? Should three coroners or constables all votes the Republican party be continued in

When the people, by their votes, decided to deepen and improve the causle, after the proper survey of the canals, work; a well known spoilsman named Aldridge was in charge. Under the civil service law, nearly all of the higher emexamination as to competency - but mark well, at this juncture a Republican Senate and Assembly passed an act, and a Republican Governor signed it, the purpose of which in the Governor's own words, was "to take the starch out of the civil service law."

What follows? Read the report of the commission appointed to investigate-a Republican commission. It reports a Honor, honesty, public probity were cast to the winds. The $9,000,000 is spent, and the work is in effect not one-third accomplished.

Who is reeponsible for this? Shall the people again place this party in power? Do the stockholders of a bank meet together and express confidence in and approval of theca-hier who has looted the bank and restore him to office for another term?

Such action would be exactly similar to the election of the Republican party to office to-morrow.

We submit only the indictment of that party. It is only one of several infamies wood as any State troops. "-Theodore of which this administration is guilty. What has it done for the public good?

What has it done to deserve the confidence and approval of the people?

The convention of the Republican party and its caudidate, Roosevelt, have publicly declared their approval of Governor Black's administration.

Shall good citizens and intelligent voters approve it? That is the ques-R. M. R.

SEVERAL QUESTIONS. From the Independent Republican.

How many horses, other than those owned by the county, are being kept or have been kept at the county alms house

Who pays for their maintenance? Why was it necessary last year for the Superintendents of the Poor to spend more money for "drugs and medicines" than for coal?

What articles were included in the classification, "drugs and medicines?"

Why has the cost of maintenance at the county alms house increased from $1.38 per week, in 1885, to $2.10, in 1896, and in the children's home from $1.59 to $2.52 in the same period?

How much was spent last year for potatoes, and why was not a sufficient supply raised on the farm?

Is the present condition of the county's farm such as would commend itself to a farmer?

These are a few of many questions which may profitably be asked of Mr. Sutherland when he requests your vote for his re-election.

Mr. Sutherland's re-election means a continuance for one year more of the ausmanagement and incompetency that has made the county farm the laughing stock of every intelligent farmer, that has stabled a string of trotters in the county's barn, and that has cost the taxpayers every year thousands of dollars that have been worse than wasted.

There is just one way in which to put an end to the deplorable condition of affairs at Orange Farm and that it is to elect James Boyd and place the management of that institution in the hands of competent men.

THE DETROIT DISASTER. Three More Bedies Recovered-The Death List to Far Eleven.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.-Three more victims were yesterday dug from the ruins of the New Wonderland building, which collapsed Saturday afternoon. This makes the death list so far 11. The bodies recovered yesterday were identified as Peter Peifio, carpenter; Frank Wolf, tinner, and Max Pott, who was Wolf's helper.

All the injured at the hospitals are reported improving except Edward Fisher, who is expected to die. A mass meeting of representative citizens was held yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office, and over $1,000 was subscribed for the relief of the families of those who were killed. It is believed that $102,000 will entirely cover the property loss.

What caused the catastrophe is still unknown and probably will be until the coroner's inquest next week.

Cabinet Crisis In Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 7.—There is a serious cabinet crisis in Newfoundland. Sir Herbert Murray, the governor, demands the resignation of Mr. Morine, minister of finance. The ostensible reason is that Mr. Morine is the general counsel of Mr. Reid, the railway contractor, but the real cause is the continued friction between Governor Murray and the minister. Mr. Morine, in tendering his resignation, points out that Sir William Whiteway, a former premier, and Messrs. Emerson and Morris, members of the late cabinet. held a similar relation to the contractor and that Sir Herbert Murray acquiesced in the arrangement in all three cases. He reminds the governor also that he has been aware ever since April last of his (Morine's) relation to Mr. Reid and insists that the governor's omission to interfere before stamps his action now as personal and vindictive. It is feared that complications will arise, wrecking the cabinet and seriously prejudicing the negotiations regarding the French treaty shore already under way before the conference for the settlement of disputes between the United States and Canada.

If the Democratic candidates for the Board of Education are elected, to-morrow, it will give the Democrats control of the Board, and then the people can and out all that they want to know about the High School building and its oost. There will be no secrets kept from the people by the people's servants.

The city taxes, this year, under Demotratic rule were $22,451 less than last year under Republican rule. The money thus saved to the taxpayers is the only eampaign fund the Democratic party has or needs. On the record made, last year, the Democratic party asks the people of Middletown to continue it in charge of the city's affairs.

In 1897, under Republican rule the city taxes were $102,787; this year, under Democratic rule they were only $80,336. The saving to the taxpayers of $22,451 was not the only benefit that resulted, for the reduction in the tax rate which this saving made possible relieved Middletown of the stigma put upon it by extravagant Republican rule of having the highest tax rate of any city in the State.

If you think that there are too many lawyers among our legislators and that the people's interests would be better promoted if our laws were made by men more closely in touch with the people, you have a chance this year to give effect to your belief. The Republican candidates for members of Congress and Assembly are all lawyers, the Democratic candidates, Mesers. Roberson, Ward and Schultz, are not.

Will Quaid, who faced Spanish bullets in the battle of San Juan Hill, has made agadant campaign in this Senatorial district and he has made it against heavy odds. He has made friends wherever he has gone. He has borne himself with modesty, making no boast of having followed the flag. He has impressed all as being a brainy young man, well inform. ed on public questions, with the full courage of his convictions and in every way capable of ably and creditably representing this district. Democrats will give him their united support and Republicans who vote for him will never regret having done so.

The Democratic candidates for Aldermen in the several wards, Alex. Finn, Lansing J. Cole, Francis M. Barnes and James Campbell are all good citizens,just the type of men who ought to be in charge of city affairs. The people of Middletown are fortunate in having a chance to vote for such candidates. If elected they will stand steadfastly by the Democratic platform of strict economy in public expenditures so that taxes may be kept down and an end put to the drug on the city's prosperity that high taxes involve.

Louis F. Goodsell was not nominated for Senator because of his ability or his usefulness as a legislator. During his three years of service in the Assembly he made no other record than that of a thick and thin machine man, a willing wearer of Odell's collar. He was regarded as a safe man because he could always be depended on to do what he was ordered to do. That's not the kind of a Senator this district wants. Brave Will Quaid, if elected, will be no man's man, but a real representative of the district and all its interests. Vote for him and you'll never regret it.

The Democratic county ticket is an excellent one in all respects. Every man on it is worthy of the hearty support of all Democrate and of all Republicans who put the welfare of the county ahead of partisunship. The election of the Democratic candidates for county office will be a rebuke to the third term policy inaugurated by Republican leaders because third termers can contribute more liberally to the campaign corruption funds than those who have not fattened at the public crib. This sale of nominations bars the way to all young men who are ambitious for political preferment and who; have not large wealth with which to pay for the privilege of running for office. The Democratic candidates are all good and capable men, who will make excellent officials. The public's interests may safely be entrusted to their keeping. Vote for them.

Daniel P. Schultz, while in the Assembly, last winter, looked closely after the interests of his district. He introduced several bills looking to the reduction of the extravagant salaries and fees received by (county officials, which, had they been passed, would have materially reduced the burdens of taxpayers. These bills were, however, killed by the Republican legislature by order of the local bosses, who saw that if county officials received only fair compensation for their labor the contributions they could make to Republican campaign funds in return fer third term nominations would be materially lessened. If Mr. Schultz is reelected, these Fexcellent measures will e again introduced, and in every way more to prevent legislation adverse to dithe country towns. the interests of Orange county farmers than the fourth nomination candidate imported into this district by the Repub lican bosses and crammed down the throats of the party in spite of the protests of many of its most reputable mem-

Supervisors when kept too long in office lose the sense of responsibility to the people which every public official should feel. They come to look upon public office as a private snap and do not look at public questions from the point of view of the non-office holding taxpayer. This is especially true of Middletown's Republican supervisors. Their votes have been cast for a great many measures in the interest of Republican office holders, Republican newspapers, or other beneficiaries of the Republican party which, to put it very mildly, were not in the interest of the taxpayer. Their votes have always been at the service of the Republican bosses for any measure they desired no matter how extravagant or how vicious. Rotation in office is sometimes a good thing and now is a good time to rotate these Republican supervisors out of office by electing the Democratic candidates in the several wards: John A. Wallace in the First; Job B. Giles in the Second; George W. Gallo way in the Third; Jacob O. Austin in the Fourth.

Samuel D. Roberson, the Democratic candidate for Congress, has grown in strength and popularity ever since the day of his nomination. In this county, where he is best known, he will receive a very flattering vote and in the other parts of the district he may be depended on to run far whead of his ticket. He is worthy of the support of every citizen. He has held many positions of trust and has been true to every trust committed to his keeping. During the ten years that he has represented his town in the Board of Supervisors he has made for himself a record that is without a blot. He has been the steadfast champion of the people's interests. He has opposed every job, every extravagance, every measure of doubtful propriety, and has always voted in favor of economy in the expenditure of the people's money. If elected to Congress he will be true to the record he has made as a supervisor. He will be in fact as well as in name, the servant of the people, and any resident of the district needing his help in any matter can apply to him in perfect confidence that he will serve him to the best of his ability. If you want this district represented at Washington by a man who has been tried and found faithful, by a man whose life is marred by no black spots, by a man who will always be true to the people's interests, vote for Samuel D. Roberson.

THE ISSUE IN THIS CITY.

The issue to be decided in this city, tomorrow, is not political. It is simply one of good government. The Democratic party promised, last year, that if placed in charge of city affairs it would reduce taxes and relieve Middletown of the odium of having the highest tax rate of any city in the State. With the help of Mayor Mance and his friends in the Common Council that promise has been kept.

The tax levy of $102,787, in 1897, was cut down to $80,336, and the tax rate, which was $25.82 in 1897, was reduced to $20. This was a real service to the city and to every one of its inhabitants. but the part that Mayor Mance and his friends in the Council had, in bringing about such a beneficent result was something that the Republican bosses could not forgive. Mayor Mance has been a good mayor; he has given the city an bonest and efficient administration and by party usage was entitled to a renomination. He was, however, refused that honor, and even when the nemination was going begging, and was being offered to this man and to that man, the Republican leaders insisted that it should not go to Mayor Mance. And why? To use the words of one of the most prominent of the Republican bosses: "Because he played into the hands of the Democrats and helped reduce city taxes."

This makes the issue. The Democratic party stands for strict economy in public expenditures, and a continuance of the policy of lower taxes. The Republican party by its refusal to nominate Mayor Mance "because he helped reduce taxes," commits itself anew to its old policy of lavish expenditure and high taxes.

Democrats cannot elect their city ticket or a majority of their candidates for Aldermen without the help of independent Republican votes. They had that help, last year, and no Republican who then voted to entrust the city's affairs into the keeping of the Democrats has had reason to regret his act. He will have no reason, a year hence, to regret having voted for the Democratic candidates, to-morrow.

Remember that a vote for Charles L. Elwood for Mayor, and for other candidates on the Democratic city and ward tickets is a vote for economy in city affairs, and that means lower taxes and more money in the people's pockets.

If a full Democratic vote is polled on election day a glorious Democratic possible he will guard the interests of his victory will be won in the State, in constituents, and he can and will do | Orange county, in this city and in most |

No Bets on the Result of the City Rice-

So far as we have been able to learn no bets have been made on the result of the election for city officers in this city.

Democrats are so confident of Charlie Elwood's election that they have offered long odds,-two to one, but not a Republican has enough confidence in his party's chances of success to accept the proffered odds.

Wagers of three to one that the Democrats will control the next Common Council have been offered but none have

In Heart Discase it Works Like Bagis

"For years my greatest enemy was organic Heart Disease. From uneasyness and palpitation it developed into abnormal action, thumping, fluttering and choking sensations. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave instant relief, and the bad symptoms have entirely disappeared. It is a wonder-worker, for my case was chronic."-Rev. L. S. Dana, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Charles L. Elwood Will Be Elected Mayor With the Whole Bemocratic City Ticket -Three and Probably Four of the Aldermon and supervisors Will Be Democrata

Unless all political signs fail, enough independent Republicans will vote for Charles L. Elwood for Mayor, to insure his election by from 800 to 500 majority.

Kester W. Staib will be elected Alderman-at-Large, and the entire Democratic city ticket will be elected by substantial

Three and probably four of the Demoeratic candidates for Aldermen will be elected, and three and probably four of the Supervisors will be Democrats.

These are not Democratic estimates alone. Well informed and conservative Republicans are agreed that there is no chance of electing their candidate for Mayor or their city ticket. The best that they hope for is two aldermen and two supervisors.

In any event the Democrats, with the help of independent Republican votes, will have control of the Common Council and all departments of the city government for another year, and this insures good government and low

THE CAPITOL EXPLOSION.

The Damage Mas Been Exaggerated-Smoke and Water Caused Greatest

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7-The big capitol building was a scene of wreck and desolation, to-day, following the explosion and fire, last night. The examination of the court room showed that the damage was confined to disordered walls and ceiling and soaked carpets. No substantial damage was done.

The bench occupied by the justices was uninjured and even briefs and papers left by some of the justices under paper weights remained undisturbed. While the fire made no progress here, smoke and water left the chamber, which has long been regarded as a model of classic beauty, in a sorry condition. The personal effects of the justices, robes, etc., were found to be uninjured.

The main less was in the Marshall's office and in the storage room where valuable old records are kept. The extent of this last loss has not yet been exactly determined, but court officials expect to make a critical examination during the day.

An examination of the meter room, where the gas which supplied the capitol is measured, shows that the big meter had been blown to pieces. This satisfied most of the capital officials that a gas explosion was responsible for the dath-

Mrs. Ann Adams.

Mrs. Ann Adams died at Paterson, N. J., at the residence of her son, Dr. Daniel T. Millspaugh, Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1898. Mrs. Adams was born in the town of Mount Hope, Feb. 11, 1824, her parents being Isaac and Clarissa (Mulock) Cor-

She was educated in the schools in Mount Hope and married Wm. E. Millspaugh then a prominent merchant, who resided in Middletown until about thirty years ago, when he removed to Titusville, Pa., where he died, leaving Elizabeth, wife of David Bennett, residing at Bradford, Pa.; Ciara, wife of Jerome Douglass, residing at Paterson, N. J.; Dr. Daniel T Millspaugh, residing at Paterson, N. J., and Dr. Louis Millspaugh, residing in New York city. Two children are deceased: Flora and Ella, the latter dying in infancy and the former leaving several children by her husband, the late Mr. Hopkins, who are now living in Western Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Adams leaves besides her husband three brothers: S. W. C. win, of Paterson, N. J., Horace Corwin, of Friendship, N. Y., A. H. Corwin, of Middletown, N. Y., and one sister, Elizabeth Wheat, of the old tomestead in Mount

Burial was in Paterson, Friday.

Charles Benton Hulse.

Charles B. Hulse, a well known young man of this city, died at his home. No. 41 Wickham avenue, at 7,30, this morning, after several weeks suffering with asthma and heart failure. Although in constant agony he patiently bore his sufferings until death's approach produced a condition of semi-consciousness, lasting all night. He had been in poor health for years, and a sinking spell attacked him the last day of the Orange county fair, while he was employed in one of the ticket boxes. He was able to get down town fire parade day, and that was the last time he left the house. The deceased was born May 19, 1857, in his late father's former home on South street, now occupied by Leander Brink. He was never of the rugged constitution which equipe young men for the stern and unceasing duties of business life. He was well liked of men, however, and as a Republican was a staunch worker for his party. His faithfulness won him appointment to clerkship in the Senate and Assembly of this Stute, his last position being document clerk for the latter body. He was employed by the State Committee in New York city, during one campagin, and was clerk for the late Senator Low during his terms at Albany. Me was also tax-collector in this city for one period. He was a member of Excelsion Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, and the Firemen's Relief and Benefit Association. He is survived by his mother, two sisters, Emma C. and Carrie D. and a brother, James Benton Hulse. The deceased has been secretary of the Republican Club of this city for years. He worried during his last illness that it seemed probable that he would lose his vote, the first time since he became twenty-one.

The funeral notice will be tound in spether column.

Happened to Read About a Similar Case - Followed the Other Man's Example and Was Cured.

The following incident is given by Charles Morris, general jobber, 52 Lexington Avenue, North Cambridge, Mass.:

"Several years ago I became poisoned by ivy. I tried many medicines, spending a large sum of money without obtaining a particle of good. My children were also afflicted with the same disease. We were all constant sufferers with an awful itching sensation, and it seemed as if I should tear myself to pieces. I picked up a paper in which I found printed a testimonial from a man in Vermont who . had been similarly afflicted and had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with benefit. I bought a bottle, which we took and it did Me and My Children so much good I purchased another supply. We continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until we used five bottles and I can safely say that neither myself nor children have any signs of the poison. It has entirely left us and we are perfectly cured. We give the whole credit to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before resorting to this medicine I was reduced in weight, but now i weigh 175 pounds, Hood's Sarsaparilla has not only done much good but has been the means of saving me a great deal of money. I would not be without is m my house and I heartfly recommend it to all who are afflicted. I have written this statement for publication, of my own will, as I want others to know what Hood's Sarsaparilla

Havana and Manila were both captured by Great Britain in 1762, and Cuba and the Philippines occupied. A very rare and interesting "Plain Narrative" of the capture of Manila was published by Rear Admiral Cornish and Brig Gen Draper in reply to accusations of infringement of the capitulations made against these officers by the Spaniards Their own allegations are ufficiently strong: "Through the whole of the above transactions the Spaniards, by evasions, avoided complying with the capitulations in every respect, except in bringing the money from the Misericordia and Ordentacara (ships), which it was out of their power to secrete. They bashfully and ungratefully took up arms against us after baving their lives given them. They preached publicly in their churches rebellion," etc., says the Nineteenth Century.

At the peace of Paris, however, (1763), which concluded the Seven Years' war, Canada, Louisiana and various islands in the West Indies having been ceded by France and Florida and Minocra by Spain, Great Britain on her part ceded to the latter power Cuba and the Philippines. STAMP FIENDS REJOICE

English Experts Discover a Cleves Forgery That Passed Through the Postmaster's Hands.

The collectors of postage stamps are julillant just here for they have found a pestification for their awn existence. V purchase of shifting stamps has been made by a firm of philate ists, and the experts and they are easer torgeries and must have deprived the government of considerable revenue nearly 25 years ago, says London Sketch

In these days of photographic and dithographic processes, one may be surprised to find English postage postage stamps forged so seldom. The old black penny stamp, with the let-'ers "V. R." in the corners, attracted the attention of the dishonest, and the fault of this clearly lies with the collectors, whose demand for this particular stamp has raised the price to Foreign forgeries proceed apace, and South American republics, in the hour of extreme financial depression, ofter resort to an issue of new stamps to tempt the gentle philatelist. The hardened collector -eldom or never falls a victim to the forger; he .. ows all about watermarks, designs, and minutiae of every description; and : "I. when one considers the multitude of stamps and the shortness of life. there comes the question whether it would not be better to buy forgeries than waste years learning to detect them.

AN OYSTER'S AGE.

A Person Can Tell It Very Ensily by Measuring the Size of the Shell.

It is just as easy to tell the age of an oyster by looking at its shell as it is to ascertain the age of a horse by ex amining its teeth, or a tree by inspecting the circles revealed by the ax or saw when it is laid low. When the oyever is six months old it is as big as a lime when one year old it will cover a silver half-dollar, and wher two veurs old will be about the circumference of a silver dollar.

The oyster, unlike the crab, is not obliged to seek new quarters or build thew house every time he grows appreciably. The extensions that he outs on his house are clearly marked क्ष a well-defined ridge, says Pearson's Strekly.

Oysters are esteemed to be at their est when between four and five years if age, and the planters endeavor to trutes the beds for that length of the Conscientious oystermen, that .. men who are not inclined to kill the above that lays the golden egg, always return to the bed oysters that are too voung but in case a patriarch is brought up, over whose shell the tides of from eight to twelve winters and semmers have ebbed and flowed, he is sent to market, where he is put at the bottom of the heap and sold with his yourger and more Inscious compan-

LAUNCHING THE LIFE-BOAT.

There are greater dangers than those of the angry sea. That dread disease—consumption, kills more men and women in a generation than the sea has swallowed up since the earliest history of navigation.

There is a sure and safe life-boat ever ready to be launched for men and women ready to be launched for men and women who suffer from this merciless destroyer. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis, weak lungs, spitting of blood and throat and nasal troubles. It acts directly on the lungs driving out all impurities and on the lungs, driving out all impurities and disease germs. It soothes and heals the mucous membranes of the lungs, bronchial mucous membranes of the lungs, bronchial tubes, throat and nasal cavities. It restores the lost appetite, makes digestion and assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, and purifies and enriches the blood. It fills the blood with the life-giving elements of the food that build new and healthy tissues. It tears down, carries off and excretes the diseased and half dead tissues upon which the germs of consumption thrive. It checks the cough and facilitates expectoration until the lungs are thorexpectoration until the lungs are thoroughly cleared. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. Unlike cod liver maker and flesh-builder. Unlike cod liver oil, it does not build flabby flesh, but the firm, muscular tissues of health. It does not make corpulent people more corpulent. Thousands have testified to their cure under this great medicine after they were given up by the doctors, and all hope was gone. THE COMING SENATE

Twenty-three New Members Will Change It Materially.

WHAT THE TWO PARTIES CLAIM;

Republicans Have Made a Gain of Two and Expect Further Gains. At Last Session There Was No Clear Majority.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.- The control of the United States senate will be determined very largely by the result of the elections tomorrow, when 23 states elect legislatures which will in turn select senators. The present party strength in the senate is as follows: Republicans, 43; Democrats, 34; Populists, 6; silver Republicans, 6. This gives a majority to no one party, and it has proved a fruitful source of doubt in legislation influenced by party lines. The terms of 30 of the present senators are about to expire, and in most of these cases the legislatures chosen tomorrow will elect successors. In seven cases, however, legislatures already have been chosen and senators elected, viz.: Aldrich of Rhode Island, Daniel of Virginia, McComas to succeed Gorman in Maryland, Hanna of Ohlo, Money of Mississippi, Proctor of Vermont and the legislature of Maine, which has been elected, but has not yet chosen a senator. In Oregon also Simon has been elected to fill a vacancy. These changes aiready made give a net gain of two in the Republican vote—McComas of Maryland and Simon of Oregon. The remaining 23 senators are yet to be chosen. Those who are about to retire are: Allen (Pop. of Nebraska), Bate (Dem. of Tennessee), Burrows (Rep. of Michigan), Cannon (silver Rep. of Utah), Clark (Rep. of Wyoming), Cockrell (Dem. of Missouri), Davis (Rep. of Minnesota). Faulkner (Dem. of West Virginia), Gray (Dem. of Delaware), Hawley (Rep. of Connecticut), Lodge (Rep. of Massachusetts), Mantle (silver Rep. of Montana), Mills (Dem. of Texas), Mitchell (Dem. of Wisconsin), Murphy (Dem. of New York), Pascoe (Dem. of Florida), Quay (Rep. of Pennsylvania), Roche (Dem. of North Dakota), Smith (Dem. of New Jersey), Stewart (silver Rep. of Nevada), Turple (Dem. of Indiana), White (Dem. of California) and Wilson (Rep. of Washington).

In several of these cases the election of the present incumbents is expected, but in quite a large number of them much doubt exists. The Republican managers are placing reliance on the fact that they need only a few votes to assure them a clear majority, while the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans would have to carry most all of the doubtful legislatures in order to prevent a Republican majority.

The states considered most in doubt are West Virginia, New York, Pennsylvania, North Dakota, New Jersey, Indiana, California, Washington and Nebraska, conflicting claims being made in each state. Among senate officials the opinion prevails that the anomalous condition now prevailing of a senate without a majority will end with the coming election and that the legislatures then chosen will give assurance of majority rule in the upper branch of congress after March 4 next.

NO MAN INDISPENSABLE.

Phis Philosopher Says There is a a Limit to the Vaine of Even the Valuable Man's Services.

"It's a mistake for a man to think be's indispensable," said Mr. Nozzleby, of the New York Sun, "for no man is. Men are valuable, and they may easily make themselves very valuable. but when a man comes to think that the business can't get along without him, or can't get along so well as it does, which amounts to the same thing, why, he's wrong, that's all More than one man has found that out when he has set his valuation too high And it is very probable that when he began to dwell on his own value, his value in reality began to decline; it is certain that one of the things that contributed most to increase his value was his forgetfulness of himself "As a matter of fact, a man's interests, if he is ready a superior man, up to a certain pour .. and that a high point, too will the care of them selves, or rather other people will take eare of them of he will supply the motive. There is a used low price for the run of people of average ability, but none for the man of really superior ability, that is, if he is a 100 per cent Lat. which is to say not only of high Lality but of perfect forgetfulness of elf and absolute devotion to business. Vay break or flaw or lack in these qualities anywhere kno he a man's value cown wenderfully. Nothing less than the whole thing will do but that will command a price anywhere and everywiele.

"Still - man is indispensable; it ise it if the nature of things that he should be. No matter who dies, the world keeps on turning just the same and it would be just the same with the business if you should go out of it."

TWO NARROW BUILDINGS.

They Are in Philadelphia and One is a Four-Story Structure Only Five Feet Wide.

Philadelphia may not be able to boast the tallest buildings in the world, but she surely bas ber share of the narrowest, says a writer in the Record On the corner of Chestour and American streets is located a building that at first glance would seem to reflect seriously on the sanity of the projector but the multitude of prosperous tenants form a monument to the financial shrewdness of the owners. From outside to outside of the walls the structure is exactly five feet wide. It is 150 feet deep, and there are four stories. Every room in it is occupied by a shop of some kind or by families, who seem to be contented with their lot. The walls are over one foot thick, and this leaves less than one yard for the inside space. Therefore, it is a physical impossibility for the tenants to occupy a full-sized bed. If they desire to sleep it must be on a cot, and the sleeper extends his body from north to south Among the numerous industries in this contracted building are a tailorshop, a restaurant, a printing office, a sign painting establishment and a cigar store. Another narrow building is at Market and Letitia streets. It is five stories high and six feet three inches wide. In its original state this building was six feet wider than at present, but a city improvement cut it down to the present size.

TO LEARN ENGLISH

A Striking Example of the intellectuni Progress Made by a Japanese Student.

A Japanese young man of education and social standing recently became a waiter in a San Francisco club in order to learn English and make a living, says the New York Tribune When he asked the steward for his wages the latter cursed him and struck him with a potato masher, whereupon he wrote the following letter to the club officials:

"Through all this affair I was never offensive; when I went there to demand the money to which I am entitled he unjustly enjoined me to get out; that is an unreasonable movement, and cannot fail to hurt a man's feelings.

"What! Without being satisfied with that insult made my blood boil and veins burst with successive onslaught of ignominious swear. My returning was completely excusable for to be indifferent to such an ignoble treatment denotes that one is a stranger to the sense of honor; and so he ought to have relished it with abashed submission And what again! The tongue, the countenance was not capable enough to wreak his savage fury and then resorted to the final step of violence as though I was a mass of call (callous?) insensible to disgrace and pain."

"Bobbing" the Bullets.

The right of a man in uniform to dodge a shell if he has a chance is discussed by a writer in the St. James' Budget in this wise: Ought one to bob when a bullet is presumably coming for one's head? As far as a noncombatant can judge, I should say that not to bob on certain occasions would be extreme folly. A cool man might bob on certain occasions, but I should not expect that he would "cut and run" any more than the man who had his head blown off by a let of a shell for not bobbing, which sounds Irish. Cen. Gordon himself says in his jourunl: "For my part, I think judicious hobbing is not a fault, for I remember on two occasions seeing shells before my eyes which certainly, had I not bouned would have taken off my head." He says that in the Crimes it was estisidered mess to bob, and they used to try to avoid it. One of his fel escofficers used to say: "It laall well for you, but I'm a family man." And he need to bob at every reFor me innocentary of our readers, we publist below councie but of the authors and locations of all the Bre diarr, how an this city;

GOODSELL MEETS A FROST.

Warwick Robublicans Refuse to Attood a Meeting at Which He and Judge Tompkins Were the Star Mttractions.

Correspondence of the Dathy Amous.

The machine Republicans of Warwick made elaborate preparations for a "grand rally" at Demerest Hall, Saturday night, when Judge Tompkins and Hon. Lewis F. Goodsell were to be present.

The meeting was widely advertised and special letters were sent to many leading Republicians who have hitherto been against the machine arging them to out and sit on the stage, "to show their interest in the election of the Republican candidates," etc.

But the Republicans didn't come. When the committee and speakers entered the hall there were only fifty people present, and at no time during the evening was there more than 150, although the half will hold 500.

The meeting was a frost from start to finish, and painfully dragged along its weary way, entirely lacking in spirit or enthusiasm.

Goasted to desperation by their chilly reception Judge Tompkins and his ass mates tried to arouse enthusiasm by but tracting the Democratic party and helding up the bogy of "Croker and free-silver," as a scarcerow to frighten the people. But not a cheer nor the least bit of applause greeted all their efforts. The few Republicans present were as cold as icebergs, and the Democrats only smiled their disgust.

It was afterward learned that a number of the absent Republicans (all antimuchine men) were attending dinner parties and other social functions that had "just nappened" to be on for the same night

THE WATER COMMISSIONERS.

Business Transactedat Saturday Night's Regular Recting-Fittration Discussed -t la'm fer Damages Disallowed,

A regular meeting of the Water Board was held Saturday night, all of the members being present. Clerk Merrill's report was read, showing the condition of the fluances.

Commissioner Dicks recommended a sea wall about 300 feet long at the dam at the lower reservoir. He will give further information to the Board.

The subject of filtration was brought up by Mr. Millen and discussed at considerable length. No action was taken. G. H. Black's claim for damages alleged to have been done to his private sewer in Ogden street, by the laying of water pipe, was disallowed.

A petition for a four inch main through Ogden street, between Prince and School surects, was granted.

The Middletown Ice Company's petition for a rebate of frontage tax, was laid on the table until the next meeting. The city engineer reported that he is making good progress with his map of water mains, tips, bydrants, etc., of the whole city.

Geo. B. Dekay's petition for water for a public urinal at his livery, opposite the condensery, was granted.

Bills amounting to $1147.87 were nudited.

The November netenra.

The earth will soon pass through the meteoric zone and on the nights of November 12, 13, 14 and 15 a most brilliant display may be expected. For some unexplained reason the astronomers confidently predict that this year's display will surpase to splendor those of all recent years.

Death of J. H. Walbek's Hother,

Knapp & Merritt received a dispatch from J. H. Wallick, Sunday, stating that his mother, Mrs. Edsworth, was dead at Rondout, and asking them to go for the body. Undertaker W. N. Knapp went to Rondout, Sunday night, and will probably return to-morrow.

Bouble Team Races in Grange County

The Goshen News says that there has never been any double team racing in Orange county. Its memory is evidently at lault. There was, many years ago, a double team race at the Irwin track, in Middletown, between a team driven by James W. Hoyt, and a made up team, one of the horses in which was old Ottawa. Another was at Highland Park, Newburgh, to, ween a Paterson team and a sorrel team owned by Edwin

TO MRS. PINKHAM

From Mrs. Walter E. Budd, of Patchogue, New York.

Mrs. Bupp, in the following letter, tells a familiar story of weakness and suffering, and thanks Mrs. Pinkham tor complete relief:

"DEAR MRS. PINEHAM:-I think it is my duty to write to you and tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I feel like another woman. Ihad such dreadful headaches through my temples and on top of my head, that I nearly went crazy; was also troubled with chills, was very weak; my left side from my shoulders to my waist pained me terribly. I could not sleep for the pain. Plasters would help for a while, but as soon as taken off, the pain would be just as bad as ever. Doctors prescribed medicine, but it gave me no relief.

"Now I feel so well and strong, have no more headaches, and no pain in side, and it is all owing to your Compound. I cannot praise it enough. It is a wonderful medicine. I recommend it to every woman I

Saturday's Foot Bail Came on the State Hospital Crounds.

The Warwick foot ball team defeated the local High School team, Saturday, on the State Hospital grounds, by the score of F1-0. The members of the Warwick team left here at 8 o'clock, going by trolley to Goshen and driving from that place to Warwick.

A Hint to Voters.

The City Clerk wishes to call the attention of the voters and Inspertors of Election to another feature in the Election Law, which was overlooked in the article published regarding the Board of Education, etc. It is this: If the voting mark is placed in the Republican circle. and also if a voting mark is placed before Whitney and Case, and no one else under said office, thea the vote will be counted for only Whitney and Case, the Inspectors having no right to determine the intent of the voter as between Martin and Finu. This rule applies equally to any two members of the Board of Education whose names are on the same line; also if the voting mark is placed before the names of Case and Finn, then the vote will be counted for Case, Martin and Finn, the vote for Case and Finn being indicated by the voting mark before their respective names, and the vote for Martin being decided by the voting mark in the Republican circle. If the voting mark were in the Democratic circle, then McBrair would get the vote instead of

HIS LAST DAY.

Esosevelt Makes Speeches Through New York State.

BY ASSOCIATED PREMI BELMONT, N. Y., Nov. 7 .- Col. Roosevelt began the last day of his campaign at Homellsville, to-day. There were over 200 people at the depot. The ground was white with snow, and heavy overcoats and winter wraps were not uncomfortable. He did not speak because he had just arisen and no stop was scheduled, merely amiliag and bowing.

The first stop was made at Audover, and there was a gathering of more than 200 people. Col. Roosevelt said the issues of this campaign were as sharply drawn as ever in the history of this state.

The second stop was at Wellsville, and and there was also a big gathering. Col. Roosevelt spoke of protective tariff.

A LITTLE BLAZE.

Fire in a Clothes Closet Extinguished

Before Much Camage Was Cone. A fire was discovered in a clothes closet at the home of James E. Matthews, on Main street, near East avenue, at 6:30, Saturday night. People in the house quickly extinguished the fire with the liberal use of water. The interior of the closet and a hall were burned, considerable damage resulting.

It is probable that the blaze started from a lamp, which had been carried into the closet a sl ort time before.
